John Glover
Christian Men Inc.
Chairman and CEO

“I strongly believe every community is equipped with the “capital resources” to define and address their respective challenges.

And once these resources are identified, they must then be engaged, encouraged, educated, and empowered to exercise leadership to address the challenges.”

Christian Men Inc. is an IRS recognized, 501c3 Not for Profit organization. Contributions or membership sponsorships can be made directly by going to christianmeninc.org.

Together, We Can Make a Difference”

All Christian Men Inc. benefits, programs, activities, and resources are designed to achieve the following:

poverty alleviation
economic empowerment
generational wealth

This is being accomplished through three strategies:

1. Creating intergenerational, small group settings which stimulate dialogue among, youth, adults, and seniors.
2. Facilitating opportunities for collaboration among the faith-based community; the business community and the at-large community.
3. Presenting workshops, classes and conferences to build and develop men who leading their families, are leaders in their community and leaders in the marketplace

Core CMi Programs

3 Generation Initiative is the business model for all programs and is vital to the success and sustainability of CMi.

The mission of the 3Gi program is to help men and boys of color, grow and develop into strong fathers, sons, brothers, who are: committed accountable respected leaders of their family, their community and in the marketplace.

Soaring to Success teaches practical ways how to experience success in seven areas of life: Faith, Family, Finance, Career, Civic, Health, and Personal development.
